PORTFOLIO MANAGER COMMENTS

In October Belgravia Beta fell by 0.52% with an average beta of 0.02 against the Stoxx 600, which dropped by -1.02%. Equity markets behaved oddly in October, with the eurostoxx 50 returning 1.9% while the Stoxx 600 was down 1.02%. The main factors behind this diverging trend were the depreciation of sterling, the outperformance of financials and the outperformance of large caps over small and mid caps.

In October, Belgravia Beta's return was negative due to the contrasting performance of the Stoxx 600, down 1.02%, and the Eurostoxx50, up 1.9%, the latter's future being sold for hedging purposes. In fact, the stock picking was positive, but the cash equities contribution of c. 50bp was more than offset by the loss in sold eurostoxx 50 futures. Best gains came from materials (Lenzing, Anglo American) and consumer discretionary (LVMH, Kering, Royal Caribbean). Individually, BNP, ING, Philips, Uniper and Soitec excelled.

As of the 31st of October, Belgravia Beta had a net equity exposure of 10.5% and a beta of 0.02 against the Stoxx 600.
