PORTFOLIO MANAGER COMMENTS

In October Belgravia Delta fell by 0.69% with an average beta of -0.001 against the Stoxx 600, which returned 8.1%. Equities rebounded strongly from oversold levels, fuelled by the ECB's preannouncement of further QE, the delay of US rate increase, and further monetary stimulus by the Bank of China.

In October, Belgravia Delta's performance was disappointing due to negative stock picking. The poor performance was primarily due to a low market exposure to energy, mining and autos, the best performing sectors in October after being the worst in the third quarter. On the positive side, telecoms and consumer discretionary did very well and, individually, Greencore, Axa and Tessenlerlo.

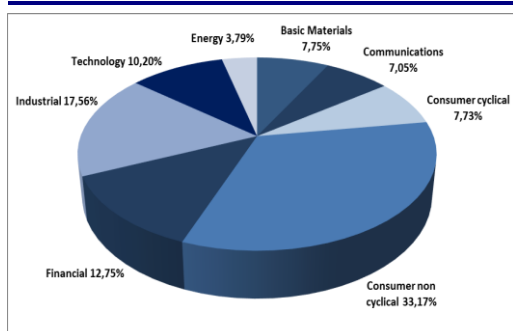

As of the 31st of October, Belgravia Delta had a net equity exposure of 13% and a beta of 0.02 against the Stoxx 600.
